

IMRE KERTÉSZ KOLLEG JENA

Europas Osten im 20. Jahrhundert. Historische Erfahrungen im Vergleich

Transnational Dimensions of Dealing with the Past in 'Third Wave' Democracies.

Central Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet Union in Global Perspective

1-2 April 2019

Faculty of History, University of Bucharest (Bd. Regina Elisabeta 4-12, Sala de Consiliu)

Monday 1st April

Opening Remarks 9.00

Panel I: Eastern Europe in Global Perspective 9.15 – 11.15

- Tobias Rupprecht (University of Exeter) – “The Global Resonances of Eastern Europe's 1989”
- Dagmar Kusá (University of Vienna) – “Captured Memory: Frozen Transitional Justice in South Africa and Central Europe”
- Raluca Groseanu (University of Bucharest) “Revising the 1948 UN Genocide Convention by National Courts. Argentina, Guatemala and Lithuania in Global Perspective”

Discussant: Ned Richardson-Little (University of Erfurt)

Coffee Break: 11.15-11.30

Panel II: Transatlantic Circulation/Mobilization concerning Communist Crimes 11.30 – 13.30

- Laure Neumayer (University of Paris 1), “Transatlantic Memory Activism: Anti-Communist Mobilizations after the Cold War”
- Marie-Laure Geoffrey (IHEAL-Sorbonne Nouvelle), “From Armed Struggle to Victimization and Criminalizing the Cuban Revolution. Entanglements between Central European and Latin American Transnational Networks”
- Grażyna Baranowska (Polish Academy of Sciences), “Mobilization of Families of Disappeared Persons: Transfer of Ideas and Transnational Activism”

Discussant: Eva-Clarita Pettai (Imre Kertész Kolleg Jena)

Lunch 13.30 – 15.00

Panel III: Regional Narratives of Dealing with the Past 15.00 – 17.00

- Anemona Constantin (University of Paris Ouest Nanterre), Muriel Blaive (IWM, Vienna), Valentin Behr (University of Warsaw), Laure Neumayer (University of Paris 1), Mate Zombory (Hungarian Academy of Science) – “The Black Book of Communism and the Criminalization of Communism after the Cold War: A pan-European Perspective”
- Caterina Preda (University of Bucharest), “A Transnational Approach to Decommunized Socialist Heritage: Collecting and Re-signifying Socialist Art”
- Dragos Petrescu (University of Bucharest), “Identity Politics and the Burden of the Past: Transnational Populism and the Uses of History in Post-2010 Poland, Hungary and Romania”

Discussant: Michal Kopeček (Imre Kertesz Kolleg Jena)

Tuesday 2nd April 2019

Panel IV: National Case-Studies in Transnational Perspective 9.00 – 11.00

- Nelly Bekus (University of Exeter), “Memory Diplomacy: Globalising Memory of Totalitarian Past in Kazakhstan”
- Bogdan Iacob (University of Bucharest), “The Presidential Commission for Analysis of the Communist Dictatorship (PCACD) in Romania: Transnational Genealogies and Projections”
- Laura Demeter (University of Bucharest) - “Cultural Heritage Destruction as a Human Rights Abuse in Romania in Transnational Perspective ”

Discussant: Mate Zombory (Hungarian Academy of Science)

Coffee Break 11.00-11.15

Roundtable & Conclusions 11.15-12.15