

Dear all,

we remind you that the deadline for the application of our workshop on the Archives of the noble Roman families is approaching, scheduled for 31st March 2023.

The seminar will be held in Rome from 22nd to 26th May 2023 and will consist of morning lectures, workshops and guided tours to the archives.

The seminar is addressed to 10 young scholars in History and 10 young scholars in Art History and Architecture (students enrolled in graduate and Ph.D. programs), but also archivists, librarians and museum curators.

For anyone interested, information and costs can be download here (we kindly ask you to spread the news forward to anyone can be interested in):
